OF PROGRAMS AND PEOPLE.
NBC television will carry the National Men's and Women's singles tennis matches over the week end. (WNBW—Saturday, Sunday and Monday, 2:00 p.m.). Bill Stern and Don Budge will handle the commentary.
(WNBW—Friday, 10:30 p.m.) returns to the air with the highlights on film of the Max Baer-Tony Galento bout of 1940.
Grantland Rice will pick football powers in each section of the United States and show films of the teams he chooses on "This Week in Sports" (WMAL-TV—Friday, 7:45 p.m.).

Telecasts and broadcasts of sessions of the United Nations Security Council will continue to be featured on three television stations and one radio station here—WMAL-TV, WNBW and WTOP-TV, and WMAL on days when the Council meets. Because stations are not sure from day to day whether U. N. telecasts and broadcasts will be available, it is not possible to list them in the Star's regular radio and television program. The Security Council normally meets at 3 p.m.

For Labor Day Snapshots you'll be "that way" about...

Drop in before the week end for the fun's over, bring in your exposed rolls for careful developing and printing. Get back clear, crisp prints you'll love at first sight! And for an extra treat, let us enlarge your favorites. They're even better when they're big! And now's a good time to think about those other summer snapshots you've been meaning to do something about. Bring along your pet negatives for extra prints... for enlargements for relatives and for friends.
